

20 San Miguel Destinations Via Scooter

El Mirador

El Mirador is a place both day and night offers one of the best views of San Miguel de Allende, is a must to take pictures and take a nice souvenir of the city point. <https://tinyurl.com/yjctxpu9>

Parroquia de San Miguel Arcangel

Grand, neo-Gothic 17th-century church known for its soaring pink spires & lofty, ornate sanctuary. The heart of San Miguel. <https://tinyurl.com/ycxtfr3s>

Templo de San Francisco

This 18th-century church, built in the architectural style called churrigueresque, contains several pieces of well-known art. <https://tinyurl.com/4jmeuf6b>

Templo de Santa Ana

Built in 1847, this place has a sober exterior and beautiful neoclassical interior with a wide variety of paintings and sculpture. <https://tinyurl.com/5ee27fhj>

Oratorio de San Felipe Neri

This multi-towered church dates from the 18th century. The pale-pink main facade is baroque with an indigenous influence. <https://tinyurl.com/aky4k9zz>

Jardín Allende

The heart of San Miguel - a leafy central plaza perfect for people watching. Adjacent to the Parroquia

Andy's Taco Cart

Without question, the best tacos in centro – opens mid-evening. <https://tinyurl.com/mwsxwn3x>

Parque Juárez

Parque Juarez is a jewel of tranquility and beauty and on weekends, local artists have their work on display. <https://tinyurl.com/2bhc65kd>

Charco Del Ingenio Botanical Gardens

170-acre botanical garden and wildlife and bird sanctuary set in an ecological preserve <https://tinyurl.com/bdestjya>

Centro Cultural Ignacio Ramírez El Nigromante

Locally called "Bellas Artes", the center offers classes in art and has a notable mural by David Alfaro Siquieros. <https://tinyurl.com/5bwby4a9>

Mercado de Artesanías

Excellent Mexican crafts, jewellery, pottery, clothing etc. all in a very colorful meandering market <https://tinyurl.com/2p8r89sx>

Ignacio Ramírez Market

Fresh vegetables, fruits, meats, and flowers, plus lots of food stalls. It's also the entry to the blocks-long Artesan Market. <https://tinyurl.com/y9jexdja>

Museo Histórico Casa de Allende

18th-century museum and home to Ignacio Allende, a notable leader of Mexico's independence movement <https://tinyurl.com/493y8k69>

20 San Miguel Destinations Via Scooter

Mask Museum

This is an incredible collection of over 600 ceremonial masks from indigenous peoples throughout Mexico.
<https://tinyurl.com/5ah8zxby>

Museo La Esquina

A quaint museum with displays of vintage, handcrafted toys from various Mexican regions.
<https://tinyurl.com/2bcsyajp>

Fabrica la Aurora

A textile mill from 1902 to 1991, Fábrica La Aurora has been converted to become an art-lover's paradise
<https://tinyurl.com/szrz8bs>

Distrito Soma

Home décor designer boutiques & gourmet eateries. <https://tinyurl.com/2p87dp6j>

Colonia Guadalupe Murals

A barrio filled with an open-air gallery of murals, some mystical, some urban, all wonderful.
<https://tinyurl.com/muvdc97x>

San Antonio Murals

Yet another Barrio with wonderful street art by talented young artists with something to say.
<https://tinyurl.com/z3978ba6>

Murals of Libramiento

A grouping of fascinating murals by painted by emerging talent, on display at the underpass of the highway
<https://tinyurl.com/j4uwuuu>

Mural Note:

The locations of the above three mural attractions are general. Exploring each neighborhood by riding around is the best way to discover these "hidden" attractions of San Miguel.